

Sabine Davison

NZ - JUDGE

With a real estate career tenure of more than two decades, Sabine Davison's extensive and award-winning real estate experience throughout New Zealand is impressive.

Among the thousands of career auctions Sabine has called, a particular highlight was calling the finale live auctions in the first 5 seasons of The Block NZ. Indeed, her auctioneering expertise is widely recognised, having been invited to judge at Auctioneering Championships both in New Zealand and Australia for some years now. Sabine's auction skillset, negotiating skills and passion are palpable and are a tangible advantage to vendors - and fellow auctioneers seeking coaching on honing our craft.

"I look forward to a fair but no doubt hotly contested Championship this September. Good luck to all competitors!"
